

RESOURCES FOR STUDENT MUSICIANS

Getting what you want in music I: What do you want from your life and career?

The answers to these questions are likely to frame future career decisions and will be fundamental to developing an emerging professional identity and clear self-image. Answer each of the questions as a self-reflection before exploring them further in groups, as a class, or online.

1. What are your most rewarding experiences inside music?

1.1. What was rewarding about them?

2. What are your most rewarding experiences outside music?

2.1. What was rewarding about them?

2.2. How do they relate to those things you most enjoy within music?

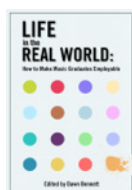

3. Which skills would you like to try or to develop more fully?

4. What would you like to learn more about?

5. What are you good at?

6. What are you passionate about?

This resource comes from Life in the Real World: How to Make Music Graduates Employable, published by Common Ground in 2012. Purchasers of the book are permitted to download all of the tools and resources.

If you have yet to purchase the book, please order it from here.

This resource was contributed by Dawn Bennet (Curtin University).

This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License. You can view a copy of the license here.

www.developingemployability.edu.au | contact@developingemployability.edu.au

