

RESOURCES FOR STUDENT MUSICIANS - EDUCATOR GUIDE

Conceptualising music careers II

This resource is designed to help students view their musician development through the eyes of another student known as Jack. The resource includes snapshots taken every six months during Jack's undergraduate program. The snapshots are taken from interviews with a UK conservatoire student and they provide an ideal text for music students to think about their personal and professional development.

Time allowance

Allow students 20 minutes to complete the resource, or assign it as a task to complete between classes.
